PROHIBITION VS. LICENSE.—In February, 1868, ununder the prohibitory law, there were 17 criminal prosecutions in the Police Court. In February, 1869, under a license law, there were 75. In February, 1870, with the prohibitory law revived, the number was 13.

West Roxbury. March 17/70.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison Esq
Boston Highlands

Dear Sir

Observing your communication in a recent copy of the Journal and also the lawyer-like reply of the editor, I enclose to you a slip which I have just observed in the Republican (Weekly) Standard of March 10th. published at New Bedford. It refers to the Police Court of that city, and if not to late, may serve your purpose to a small extent.

Truly yours
Geo. Kempton
